

NATIONAL EPA-TRIBAL SCIENCE COUNCIL
AND QUINULT INDIAN NATION

...invite you to participate in the upcoming conference.

National Forum on Tribal Environmental Science

Date: September 24–28, 2006

Location: Quinault Beach Resort and Casino
78 Street Route 115
Ocean Shores, Washington 98569

Web Site: <http://www.scgcorp.com/TribalScience>

Purpose:

The Conference will provide an opportunity for tribal environmental professionals to learn from and network with peers in other tribes on shared scientific issues and concerns. Come share success stories on important environmental science issues with other tribes. The Conference will offer several ways to share knowledge and learn from others:

- Learn through training
- Deliver a presentation
- Network
- Offer comments, questions, and suggestions
- Participate in field trips
- Present a poster

Audience:

The Conference is designed for tribal leaders and staff working on environmental science topics. Members of tribal organizations, tribal faculty and students, representatives of EPA, and other federal agencies are invited to participate. To encourage tribal participation, the Conference has no registration fee and offers a limited number of tribal travel scholarships.

Additional Information:

The Conference is being sponsored by the National EPA-Tribal Science Council (TSC) and hosted by the Quinault Indian Nation (QIN). To learn more, contact a TSC representative listed at <http://www.epa.gov/osp/tribes/tribal/who.htm> Environmental science information is available at <http://www.epa.gov/osp/tribes.htm>
